WEST AKRON BASEBALL & SOFTBALL LEAGUE (WABL) - BASEBALL/SOFTBALL PARENT AUTHORIZATION

I, _____, the parent/legal guardian of _____, do hereby give my approval and consent to my child's participation in any and all league and team activities during the current season. I agree to assume all risks and hazards incidental to such participation, including transportation to and from league and team activities. I agree to release and hold harmless the West Akron Baseball & Softball League (WABL), its officers, directors, coaches, volunteers, umpires/officials, and participants from any and all causes of action, claims, and demands arising out of personal injury, damage, or loss sustained by my child, myself, or any other interested person or organization by reason of my child's participation in league or team activities. I certify that the above child has been given a physical examination in the year prior to the current season and that the above child is in good health and physical condition to participate in all league and team activities. I will furnish a birth certificate for my above named child upon request of the league. In the event that I cannot be reached in an emergency, I hereby provide my consent and approval to the adult person in charge to secure proper emergency medical assistance and verify I have read and understand the WABL/PCA Parents Pledge.

Parent Pledge

Our organization is committed to the principles of Positive Coaching Alliance (PCA). Therefore, we ask that you read, sign and return this form to your child's coach or any appropriate representative of our organization.

In keeping with PCA's ideal of the Double-Goal Coach® – who has a goal of winning and an even more-important goal of teaching life lessons through sports – I will be a Second-Goal Parent®, focused on the goal of using sports to teach life lessons, while leaving the goal of winning to players and coaches.

I will use positive encouragement to fill the Emotional Tanks of my children, their teammates, and coaches. I understand that, like the gas tank of a car, a full Emotional Tank can take people most anywhere.

I will reinforce the "ELM Tree of Mastery" with my child (E for Effort, L for Learning, M for bouncing back from Mistakes). Because I understand that a mastery approach will help my child succeed in sports and in life, I will:

- encourage my child to exert maximum Effort
- help my child Learn through sports
- urge my child to get past Mistakes by using a Mistake Ritual, such as a flushing motion, to trigger a reminder to flush the mistake and move on to the next play.

I will set an example for my child by Honoring the Game, respecting ROOTS (Rules, Opponents, Officials, Teammates, and Self). If I disagree with an official's call, I will Honor the Game and be silent.

I will use a Self-Control Routine to avoid losing my composure if I grow frustrated. I will take a deep breath, turn away from the game to refocus, count backwards from 100 or use self-talk ("I need to be a role model. I can rise above this.")

I will refrain from negative comments about my child's coach in my child's presence so that I do not negatively influence my child's motivation and overall experience.

I will be as prompt as possible dropping my child off and picking my child up from practices and games.

I will engage in No-Directions Cheering, limiting my comments during the game to encouraging my child and other players (from both teams).
